

THE TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE

CEET
CENTRO DE ESTUDIOS
ECONÓMICOS TOMILLO

PRAVOBRANITELJICA
ZA RAVNOPRAVNOST SPOKOVA

FINAL CONFERENCE

“Strategies against Gender Pay Gapping”, of the project “ Gender Pay Gap: New Solutions to an old problem” which will be held in June 8th 2016, in Zagreb, Croatia in the European Parliament – Information Office in Zagreb, Trg Augusta Cesarca 6.

hosted by partners on the project and with organizational support of Ombudswoman for Gender Equality of the Republic of Croatia.

GENDER WAGE WATCHERS

The EU informal Network - Gender Wage Watchers is formed by partners on the project from Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Spain and Sweden who are trying to find solutions to close the gender pay gap, one of the most known discriminatory practices in the labour world.

This project is funded by the PROGRESS Programme of the European Union

9:00-9:30	Registration and welcoming of the guests
9:30-10:00	Opening statement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welcoming word and opening of the conference Anamarija Tkalčec, CESI • Welcoming word and Efforts made for implementation of equal opportunities in the labour world - Višnja Ljubičić, Ombudswoman for Gender Equality
10:00-10:30	Introduction of the project “Gender Pay Gap - New solutions for an old problem”	Gender Wage Watchers on the action Anamarija Tkalčec, CESI Common findings of the project, Nadja Bergmann, L&R and Elvira González Gago, external consultant
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:30	Outcome of the project “Gender Pay Gap - New solutions for an old problem”	Country specific findings and overview of the actions done Germany – Alexandra Scheele Spain – Mercedes Valcárcel/Cristina Castellanos Belgium – Hildegard Van Hove Estonia – Liina Osila

GENDER WAGE WATCHERS

The EU informal Network - Gender Wage Watchers is formed by partners on the project from Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Spain and Sweden who are trying to find solutions to close the gender pay gap, one of the most known discriminatory practices in the labour world.

This project is funded by the PROGRESS Programme of the European Union

THE TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE

CEET
CENTRO DE ESTUDIOS
ECONÓMICOS TOMILLO

		Austria – Nadja Bergmann Croatia – Maja Gergorić
12:30-13:30	Gender pay gap in elderly age Presentation of the tool “eg-check” a tool-box for testing equal pay Importance of legal mechanisms Presentation “PPIINA”	Union for Retired Persons – Jasna Petrović, Croatia Andrea Jochmann-Döll, Germany Sandra Konstatzky, Ombud for Equal Treatment, Austria Ignacio Gil, Spain
13:30-14:30	Lunch	Buffet
14:30 – 14:45	Presentation of Belgian Law on Gender Pay Gap	Hildegard Van Hove, Institute for Gender Equality, Belgium
14:45 – 15:10	Presentation “15:57”	Gertrud Astrom, expert and support on the project
15:10-16:00	Talk on strategies of collaboration and joint actions	Representatives of Unions
16:00-16:25	Final comments, Wrapping up and conclusions
16:25 – 17:00	Informal gathering with coffee

GENDER WAGE WATCHERS

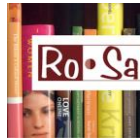

The EU informal Network - Gender Wage Watchers is formed by partners on the project from Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Spain and Sweden who are trying to find solutions to close the gender pay gap, one of the most known discriminatory practices in the labour world.

This project is funded by the PROGRESS Programme of the European Union

THE TAVISTOCK INSTITUTE

CEET
CENTRO DE ESTUDIOS
ECONÓMICOS TOMILLO

PRAVOBRANITELJICA
ZA RAVNOPRAVNOST SPOKOVA

For all questions please contact Anamarija Tkalčec in CESI – Center for Education, Counselling and Research, Zagreb, Croatia: anamarija.tkalcec@cesi.hr, Nova cesta 4, 10 000 Zagreb , tel: + 385 1 24 22 800

GENDER WAGE WATCHERS

The EU informal Network - Gender Wage Watchers is formed by partners on the project from Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Estonia, Germany, Spain and Sweden who are trying to find solutions to close the gender pay gap, one of the most known discriminatory practices in the labour world.

This project is funded by the PROGRESS Programme of the European Union